ORDER

KIMBA M. WOOD, District Judge:

The Court denies without prejudice defense counsel Avrom Robin's January 4, 2021 request for CJA funds in connection with representing defendant in a civil, SEC case. Counsel's stated justification for that request is that defense counsel's representation in the civil, SEC case "was directly linked and parallel with the conduct charged in the criminal case" against defendant, and was "inextricably intertwined" with it.

Defense counsel's request is not tailored to meet the more narrow, requisite standard.

See Guide to Judiciary Policy §210.20.30; United States v. Vilar, 979 F. Supp. 2d 443 (S.D.N.Y. 2013) (Judge Sullivan).

Counsel may file an amended request tailored to meet the requisite standard.

SO ORDERED.
